

Kim Barrett

Personalisation Lead May 2019

My One Page Profile for Work

What is important to me at work?

- To ensure that the people we support lead the lives they choose.
- That I am able to spend quality time with the people we support.
- I have plenty of cups of coffee in the morning, milk, no sugar.
- That I work with likeminded people.
- Make sure that we can have a laugh together at work.
- That I am able to meet up with colleagues and friends to discuss and implement new ideas.
- It is really important that I have the support from my family and friends.
- That I am given deadlines to work too (these may need to be negotiable!).

What people say they like and admire about me

Trustworthy, approachable, intuitive, enthusiastic, loyal, good listener, positive, tenacious, honest, passionate about people we support

How I live out Future Directions values:

I treat others as I expected to be treated.

Have fun with people the people we support.

Take the time to actively listen to people.

How best to support me at work

- Be positive and have some fun.
- Think of solutions; not barriers.
- Plenty of cups of coffee in the morning.
- Explain to me in a clear way what is expected.
- If I upset you, talk to me about it, I can become passionate about things.
- Encourage, support and talk to me when I am struggling.
- Sometimes I need to be pushed out of my comfort zone – don't be afraid to do so because I really enjoy the challenge.
- Help me to be organised.
- Be upfront and honest with me.
- It's good to talk.